THE NATIONAL SOCIETY

HISTORICAL

HE NATIONAL Society of the Sons of the American Revolution, a patriotic Society, whose membership has always been based upon lineal descent from participants in American Revolution, was first organized in the State of California in the year 1875, as the Sons of Revolutionary Sires. A National organization was formed April 30, 1889, by the union of co-equal State Societies under the name of the Sons of the American Revolution. It was incorporated by special act of Congress June 6, 1906. It is composed of 46 State Societies, and Societies in the District of Columbia, Hawaii, the Philippines and France.

PURPOSES AND OBJECTS

The purposes and objects of this Society are declared to be patriotic, historical, and educational, and shall include those intended or designed to perpetuate the memory of the men who, by their services or sacrifices during the war of the American Revolution, achieved the independence of the American people; to unite and promote fellowship among their descendants; to inspire them and the community at large with a more profound reverence for the principles of the Government founded by our forefathers; to encourage historical research in relation to the American Revolution; to acquire and preserve the records of the individual services of the patriots of the war, as well as documents, relics, and landmarks; to mark the scenes of the Revolution by appropriate memorials; to celebrate the anniversaries of the prominent events of the war and of the Revolutionary period; to foster true patriotism; to maintain and extend the institutions of American freedom, and to carry out the purposes expressed in the preamble of the Constitution of our country and the injunctions of Washington in his farewell address to the American people.

REASONS FOR MEMBERSHIP

It is a practical way of honoring a man's patriotic forefathers.

The Society encourages continued public interest in the men and events of the American Revolution.

To the youth of the families of members it teaches important lessons of patriotism and good citizenship.

It preserves for future generations the family pedigrees of members back to the period of the Revolution.

By the wide distribution of leaflets printed in the leading European languages it teaches the millions of aliens in the United States what the Nation stands for, what it means for them to become a part of the body politic, participating in the duties and responsibilities of active citizens in an intelligent manner.

It is non-sectarian, non-political, uniting in friendly relationship men of all creeds, men of the North, South, East and West.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR MEMBERSHIP

Any man shall be eligible to membership in the Society who, being of the age of twenty-one years or over, and a citizen of good repute in the community, is the lineal descendant of an ancestor who was at all times unfailing in his loyalty to, and rendered active service in, the cause of American Independence, either as an officer, soldier, seaman, marine, militiaman or minute man, in the armed forces of the Continental Congress, or of any one of the several Colonies or States, or as a Signer of the Declaration of Independence; or as a member of a Committee of Safety or Correspondence; or as a member of any Continental, Provincial, or Colonial Congress or Legislature; or as a recognized patriot who performed actual service by overt acts of resistance to the authority of Great Britain.

HOW TO BECOME A MEMBER

Trace your lineage back to the period of the Revolution through paternal and maternal lines and ascertain the names and residences of all male lineal ancestors of proper age for active participation in the struggle for Independence. This search may be guided by family papers and traditions, by published and original probate and land records of towns and counties, and by tombstone inscriptions. Search printed and manuscript records of military and naval service. Where two or more men of the same name are recorded from the same locality, identify as your own ancestor the one upon whom claim is based. Names of German, Dutch, or French origin may be disguised by translation into English or by various phonetic spellings.

References to manuscript sources must be accompanied by officially certified copies.

Individual Membership is through one of the State Societies and all are members of the National Society of the Sons of the American Revolution.

Fees and dues are regulated by the State Societies.

Application for membership is made on standard blanks, furnished by the State Societies. These blanks call for the place and date of birth and of death of the Revolutionary ancestor and the year of birth, of marriage, and of death of ancestors in intervening generations. Membership is based on one original claim; additional claims are filed in supplemental papers. The applications and supplementals are made in duplicate. One copy remains with the State Society and one copy is permanently preserved in the Registrar General's Office, where a reference card index is kept of member's names and of their Revolutionary Ancestors.

SOURCES OF REVOLUTIONARY SERVICE RECORD

There is no complete roll of soldiers and sailors and civil patriots of the Revolution. The following are some of the principal sources of information. In calling for certification of service record give the full name and residence of the ancestor.

National

The Bureau of Pensions has claim papers of about 70,000 Revolutionary soldiers and their widows. The U. S. Commissioner of Pensions, Washington, D. C., will furnish abstracts of service from the records without charge. Lists of pensioners, arranged by States, were published by the Government in 1820, 1835 and 1840, but the documents are not generally available for examination.

The Adjutant General, U. S. Army, War Department, is in charge of all muster and pay rolls of soldiers in possession of the Government and will furnish abstracts of service without charge to applicants who give a valid reason for desiring the information.

The Navy Department is gathering material relating to service in the Navy.

Consult Force's "American Archives," Fourth Series, Vols. 1 to 6, and Fifth Series, Vols. 1 to 3. Heitman's Historical Register of Officers of the Continental Army; "Records of the Revolution," by W. T. R. Saffell, New York, 1858; Journals of the Continental Congress, Vols. 1 to 14 (1774 to 1779), so far published by the Library of Congress; also "Les Combattants Francais de la Guerre Americaine, 1778-1783, reprinted, with index, as U. S. Senate Doc. No. 77, 58th Cong., 2d Sess., containing about 40,000 names of French soldiers and sailors who participated in the American Revolution.

Men whose mothers or sisters are members of the Daughters of the American Revolution are eligible to the Sons of the American Revolution and in such cases the application papers of the "Daughters" become sources of information by applying to the Registrar General of that Society at Memorial Continental Hall, Washington, D. C., with written permission of the "Daughter."

WHAT THE SOCIETY HAS ACCOMPLISHED

It has erected hundreds of monuments and tablets to commemorate events and men of the Revolution, and to mark the battle fields and other historic sites of the Revolutionary period. It promotes the daily display of the Stars and Stripes on all Public Buildings, and at every Post Office in the land. It has marked the graves of thousands of those who fought for American Independence. It has rescued from oblivion the graves of several of the Signers of the Declaration of Independence, and has marked them with appropriate memorials. It has saved from destruction and brought to light valued records of the Revolution, and has secured the enactment of laws for gathering together in the War Department, and Navy Department, the valuable muster and pay rolls of soldiers and sailors in that War.

It has promoted the patriotic education of the youth of our country by awarding medals and other prizes for essays on historic topics. It has presented busts and portraits of eminent Americans to schools and colleges. It has encouraged and taken part in the celebration of patriotic anniversaries. Flag Day, on June 14th, was first observed in 1890 upon the recommendation of the Connecticut Society of the Sons of the American Revolution. It has helped to secure the enactment in most of the States of laws prohibiting the desecration of the Flag. It has secured the preservation of some of the most important battle field and historic buildings of the Revolution as National Memorials. It has assisted in better citizenship by the wide distribution of leaflets to the Aliens and in the larger cities by illustrated lectures on our country given in their own language.

It has gathered together in one Society since its organization in 1889 more than 23,000 members, many of them leaders in statesmanship, in law and medicine, in business affairs, in military life, in literature and education, all working together for a better citizenship and a better country.

It has secured the publication of the rolls of more than 40,000 soldiers and sailors of France who participated in the American Revolution. It is securing the card indexing of the valuable genealogical and historical data in the papers of 70,000 pensions of the Revolution for present reference and future publication.

The Society publishes and distributes in May, October, December, and March an "Official Bulletin," reviewing the current work of the organization with records of new members; and issues a Year Book containing the Proceedings of the Annual Congresses held in various parts of the country, and the full pedigrees of members enrolled each year.

DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA SOCIETY

The District of Columbia Society is one of the constituted bodies forming the National Society of the Sons of the American Revolution, chartered by Act of Congress and having about 23,000 members. Every member of the District of Columbia Society and other State Societies is ipso facto a member of the National Society.

FEES AND DUES

The initiation fee is five ($5.00) dollars; the annual dues three ($3.00) dollars, to be paid in advance on the twenty-second of February each year.

The payment of fifty ($50.00) dollars at one time constitutes a life member, and the member so paying is exempt from the payment of annual dues.

In each case of transfer of members from another State Society, or any member of the Sons of the Revolution, in good standing, who is eligible and acceptable under the constitution of this Society joining this Society, the initiation fee is not required.

WHAT THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA SOCIETY DOES

It has been a potent factor in securing legislation for patriotic ends and its future influence in this direction will be insistent and thorough.

The Society is the ideal vehicle through which to convey to all who claim the protection of our Flag a broadening spirit of initial Americanism.

It maintains a Library.

Within its fraternal circles valuable friendships are made, brilliant orations are heard, delightful entertainments are given and the ladies have their evening.

Regular meetings are held during November, December, January, February, March and April of each year when its members come together in social reunion, listen to patriotic and historical addresses and musical programs of superior merit. "Ladies' Night" has become a feature of the Winter's entertainment. The January meeting is devoted to the Mothers, Wives, Sisters, Daughters and Sweethearts, when a specially arranged program of music, addresses, supper and dancing, is provided for their entertainment.

In 1900, acting upon the request of the Flag Committee of the District of Columbia, the Commissioners of the District issued a special order urging citizens to display their flags on Flag Day. For the first time the Commissioners made a proclamation directing special attention to the display of the Flag of the United States on Flag Day.

As a result of the letter addressed by the Flag Committee to the Governors of the several states of the Union regarding the special observance of Flag Day, proclamations covering the matter were issued by Governor Bliss of Michigan; Governor Otero, New Mexico; Governor Stanley, Kansas; Governor Toole, Montana; Governor Orman, Colorado; Acting Governor Cooper, Territory of Hawaii and the Commissioners of the District of Columbia.

It participates in all patriotic and civic celebrations in our city and helps to keep alive, in other ways, the spirit of patriotism and civic pride. On June 14, 1901, the Society presented 43,000 small Flags to the school children of the City of Washington.

It has a membership, January 1, 1912, of 509. On the roll of members are to be found the names of many of the leading business and professional men and public officials, not only of our city, but of the entire country.

It takes the initiative as well as cooperates in the securing of desirable federal legislation.

AMERICA

My country, 'tis of thee,
Sweet land of liberty,
Of thee I sing;
Land where my fathers died!
Land of the pilgrim's pride!
From every mountain side
Let freedom ring.

My native country, thee,
Land of the noble free,
Thy name I love!
I love thy rocks and rills,
Thy woods and templed hills!
My heart with rapture thrills,
Like that above.

Our fathers' God, to thee,
Author of liberty,
To thee we sing;
Long may our land be bright
With freedom's holy light;
Protect us by thy might,
Great God, our King!

AMERICA—BROTHERHOOD

O beautiful for spacious skies,
For amber waves of grain,
For purple mountain majesties
Above the fruited plain!
America! America!
God shed His grace on thee
And crown thy good with brotherhood
From sea to shining sea!

O beautiful for pilgrim feet
Whose stern, impassioned stress
A thoroughfare for freedom beat
Across the wilderness!
America! America!
God mend thine every flaw,
Confirm thy soul in self-control,
Thy liberty in law!

O beautiful for heroes proved
In liberating strife,
Who more than self their country loved,
And mercy more than life!
America! America!
May God thy gold refine,
Till all success be nobleness,
And every gain divine!

O beautiful for patriot dream
That sees beyond the years
Thine alabaster cities gleam
Undimmed by human tears!
America! America!
God shed His grace on thee
And crown thy good with brotherhood
From sea to shining sea!

THE STAR-SPANGLED BANNER

O say can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, thro' the perilous night
O'er the ramparts we watched were so gallantly streaming?
And the rockets' red glare, bombs bursting in air,

Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there.
O say does the Star-Spangled Banner still wave
O'er the Land of the Free and the Home of the Brave?

On the shore dimly seen thro' the mist of the deep,
Where the foe's haughty host in dread silence reposes,
What is that which the breeze o'er the towering steep,
As it fitfully blows, half conceals, half discloses?
Now it catches the gleam of the morning's first beam,
In full glory reflected, now shines in the stream—
'Tis the Star-Spangled Banner! O long may it wave
O'er the Land of the Free and the Home of the Brave!

O thus be it ever, when freemen shall stand
Between their lov'd homes and war's desolation;
Blest with vict'ry and peace, may the heav'n-rescued land
Praise the Pow'r that has made and preserved us a nation.
Then conquer we must, for our cause it is just,
And this be our motto: "In God is our trust!"
And the Star-Spangled Banner in triumph shall wave
O'er the Land of the Free and the Home of the Brave!

A THOUSAND YEARS

Life up your eyes, desponding freemen!
Fling to the winds your needless fears!
He who unfurled your beauteous banner
Says it shall wave a thousand years.

CHORUS.

A thousand years, my own Columbia!
'Tis the glad day so long foretold;
'Tis the glad morn whose early twilight
Washington saw in times of old.

What if the clouds one little moment
Hide the blue sky where morn appears,
When the bright sun that tints them crimson,
Rises to shine a thousand years?—Cho.

Tell the great world these blessed tidings!
Yes, and be sure the bondsman hears;
Tell the oppressed of every nation
Jubilee lasts a thousands years.—Cho.

COLUMBIA, THE GEM OF THE OCEAN

Oh, Columbia, the gem of the ocean,
The home of the brave and the free,
The shrine of each patriot's devotion,
A world offers homage to three;
Thy mandates make heroes assemble,
When Liberty's form stands in view,
Thy banner makes Tyranny tremble,
When borne by the Red, White, and Blue.

Chorus.—
When borne by the Red, White, and Blue.

ABOUT THIS HANDBOOK

The 1912 S. A. R. Handbook-Directory originated in a resolution of the Recruiting Committee requesting that the Society provide a pamphlet of information for use of Compatriots who would aid in a dignified but definite way, the work of Recruiting Members for the District of Columbia Society.

A Committee on Handbook was appointed and during the summer material for the proposed publication prepared. The counsel of the National Society Officials was asked and in conference with resident Washington members in October the manuscript was gone over carefully. So favorably were Judge Stockbridge, Commander Moore and other National leaders impressed with the material, that permission was asked of the District Society Committee to use the manuscript in a pamphlet for the National Society's service in extension of membership.

This request was readily granted and with slight emendations Secretary Clark issued 10,000 copies under authority of the National Organization in November, 1911. Each member of the D. C. Society received a copy by mail. California State Society ordered a thousand copies by telegraph.

Final authority to issue the present Handbook-Directory for the D. C. Society was given the Committee at the December meetings of the Board of Managers and the Society.

Extraordinary care has been exercised to insure the correctness of the Directory. Changes in names, titles or addresses should be forwarded to the Secretary of the Society or to the Chairman of the Handbook Committee.

It is earnestly hoped that this book may be made useful in the work of recruiting.

THE COMMITTEE.
